Project Undercover

The Girl Scouts of Troop #544 will place collection boxes in the Greenville Public Library for new socks, diapers, and underwear. The donations will be given to the RI Donation Exchange Program and eventually to families with young children in need. There are over 30,000 children under the age of 7, living in poverty in Rhode Island. This project helps to meet the needs of these families. Boxes will be in both the main lobby and the Children's Room from April 1-29. For more information, please contact Diane Maione at 949-9861.

Mother's Day Craft

On Wednesday, April 22 at 4 pm, children ages 6-10 are welcome to join us and make a Mother's Day craft. Children will be able to hear a story and decorate a craft to give to their mother, grandmother or someone special to them that they will celebrate on Mother's Day.

Children's Bubble Display

During April, ten and a half-year-old Erik Brenner will display his Pokémon collection in the Children's Room Bubble. When asked why he enjoys collecting Pokémon Erik said, "I like Pokémon because it is fun to collect and I think some of the Pokémon are really cute and powerful." Erik's collection includes Pokémon cards, figures and more, so be sure not to miss this display!

School Vacation Week Fun!

Registration is required for all of the following programs and will begin April 1.

Young Adult Department News

Fool's Challenge

Fool me once, shame on me, and fool me twice, shame on you! It's April Fool's Day, and we are going to have a trivia game where you can decide which of two choices is true and which is false. Each right answer gets you a prize. Come for the fun on Wednesday, April 1 at 3:00 pm. Anyone in middle or high school is welcome.

Scene-It? for Teens

Trivia, puzzles, and video quizzes. Test your knowledge of pop culture with this fun DVD-game on Monday, April 6 at 3:00 pm. If you are in middle or high school, this will be a blast.

Easter Egg Painting

Spring is in the air, and it is time to add a little color to your life. Come to the library and paint some beautiful Easter eggs just in time for the holiday. Everyone interested in decorating these craft eggs can stop into the library at 3:00 pm on Wednesday, April 8. Those ages 11 – 18 are welcome to participate.

Talk & Snack Book Chat

The library's new tween book group is holding it's first official session. With discussion leaders Janina Messerlian and Brianna Keegan, we will be discussing our first fun book. Stop into the library to pick up your copy so you will be ready to talk about the book at 3:00 pm on Thursday, April 30.

Beads, Beads, Beads....

Are you looking for a cool bracelet to wear? Do you want to make a nice necklace for your mom or other loved one? Come and participate in a wonderful program presented by the library's very own Becky Tremblay on Wednesday, April 29 at 3:00 pm. This craft is designed for those aged 11 – 14.

Wii! It's So Much Fun!

It's good exercise, and it really is a great way to compete. Each Tuesday, the Library will be offering teens a chance to play with friends on a Nintendo Wii game from 2:00 – 6:00 pm. You just bring yourself (and maybe a friend) and enjoy the fun. The program is for middle- and high-school-aged young adults.

Seek and Find Fun: Pictureka!

Everyone remembers playing Where's Waldo or I Spy when they were little. Well, here is your chance to do that type of thing as a game and compete with all your friends. The fun kicks off on Monday, April 27 at 3:00 pm. This program is for those between the ages of 11 and 18.

Young Adult Writers Group

Aspiring writers in middle and high school are welcome to join this new group, which will meet monthly to put their stories to paper. Writers of all skill levels are welcome, and our next session will take place on Thursday, April 16 at 4:00 pm.

Envirocrafts

The Earth is in danger, and Earth Day is the perfect time of year to find ways to celebrate the world in which we live. Join in the fun as we complete a series of simple crafts made out of recycled materials on Wednesday, April 15 at 3:00 pm. With these items to decorate your room, you will be ready for Earth Day the following week.
