Children's News

Storytime

The winter session of storytimes are now in progress for children ages 1 1/2 - 6. There is still room available in our Wednesday morning preschool group (ages 3 1/2 - K). Please call 949-3630 ext. 3 for more information. Look for our registration for the spring series of storytimes in March.

Valentine's Craft

Join us in celebrating Valentine's Day on Monday, February 8 at 4 pm. Children will hear a Valentine's Day story and create a heart card hanger. Registration for children ages 6-10 is now being taken.

"Everything Old is New Again"

Children who decorated a sphere during the Apple Blossom Garden Club workshop at the Library in January, will have their creations on display at the RI Convention Center February 18-21 at the annual RI Federation of Garden Clubs' standard flower show. Each piece will be judged and ribbons awarded. Children may pick up their arrangements at the library once the show is over.

Dan Butterworth and his Marionettes

Join us for some fun with Dan Butterworth on Wednesday, February 17 at 1:30 pm. Children ages 5-10 may register beginning Feb.1. Dan will entertain children with his hand carved marionettes in Carnival del Mundo, a compilation of puppets and dances he created from his travels. Adults and children alike will delight in Dan's performance!

Art Class

Children ages 6-10 may sign up for a class taught by artist and teacher Adele Karbowski on Thursday, February 18 from 2:30-3:30 pm. Adele will teach art Inspired by nature. Registration is required and must be done in person. A $5.00 materials fee will be required at registration which will begin February 1.

Dr. Seuss Day!

Children ages 6-10 are invited to celebrate Dr. Seuss and his books on Friday, February 19 at 10:30 am to prepare for his upcoming birthday on March 2. Activities will include a Dr. Seuss trivia game, story and craft. Children will create their own Seuss character. Be sure to register beginning Monday, February 1 so you won't miss out on this creative and fun activity!

Getting Ready for Kindergarten Night

Children who are entering kindergarten in the fall, along with their parents, are invited to an evening of stories and fun activities in this collaborative effort between the local libraries and the Smithfield Outreach program. The integrated preschool teachers will be on hand, as well as the children's librarians from both libraries in town. Parents will receive a calendar explaining the early learning standards to use with their children to better prepare them for kindergarten. Refreshments will be served. Monday, February 22 at 6:15 is the date for the Greenville Library event. A second event will be held at the East Smithfield Library in the spring (date TBA). Please call 949-3630 ext. 3 to register.

Lego Club

The Children's Department is interested in setting up a Lego Club for children to meet twice a month after school. Coaches are needed to oversee the kids and help with suggestions for building various projects. If we can have at least two committed young adults or adults interested in this project, we will begin registering the children. Please call 949-3630 ext. 3 if interested.

Children's Display Bubble

For February, eight-year-old Cole Hayhurst will display his stuffed animal collection of cats in the Children's Room Bubble. Cole loves collecting stuffed animal cats because "they are so fuzzy." So be sure to stop in the children's room to view Cole's cat collection!

Wii Fun

Tuesdays are Wii days, and that means those between the ages of 11 and 18 are invited to drop into the library from 2:00-6:00 pm to play Wii. We have two systems set up for participants to play a selection of games that includes Super Smash Bros. Brawl, Super Mario Kart, American Idol, and a number of other titles.

Win, Lose, or Draw!: Pictionary

This fun party game is guaranteed to get everyone involved. Work in teams with your friends or make new ones as we try and guess what that object being drawn really is. The festivities will kick off at 3:00 pm on Monday, February 1, and those ages 11-18 are welcome to participate.

Anime Cinema

Whether you can draw or not, this fun Friday afternoon, you can come to the library and enjoy a free showing of some Japanese-themed cartoons at 2:30 pm. Following each showing, feel free to stay and discuss what you have watched. This winter/spring session will include School Rumble Season 2, Ouran High School Host Club, Kodocha Season 1, and Soly Rei.

Lego Mentors Needed!

Are you into anime? Every Friday afternoon, you can come to the library and enjoy a free showing of some Japanese-themed cartoons at 2:30 pm. Following each showing, feel free to stay and discuss what you have watched. This winter/spring session will include School Rumble Season 2, Ouran High School Host Club, Kodocha Season 1, and Soly Rei.

Make 'n' Bake Valentine Treats

The library is looking to start a children's Lego Club in February. If you have a talent or an interest in Lego construction and would like to help with the program, the Library would love to have you join the presentation team. Stop into the library or give us a call at 949-3630 x 3.

Need Math Help?

The Library is offering an opportunity for area middle and high school students to get help with their math. Sessions will begin on February 11. Thomas Carrazzo, an education student specializing in mathematics at the University of Rhode Island, can help you sort out your troubles in the areas of basic math, algebra, geometry, trigonometry, and beginning calculus. Call the library at 949-3630 x 103 with any questions.

Go for the Gold!

Valentine's Day is no fun without sweets. On Wednesday, February 10, the library is going to give you a chance to ice and decorate some cookies with a Valentine theme. You can give them as a gift or eat them as a snack, but you can get creative starting at 3:00 pm.

With the Olympics taking place in Canada, it only seems right to help out our neighbors to the north. Come to a fun craft program on Wednesday, February 24 at 3:00 pm as we make gold, silver, and bronze medals to give as rewards for a job well done.

Tween Scene-it?

If you are on top of all the newest music, movies, and television, this might be the program for you. Those ages 11 - 13 are welcome to stop into the library for this fun, interactive program that uses puzzles, clips for movies and television, and trivia to create a competitive game. The program will start at 3:00 pm on Thursday, February 11 and lasts for two hours.

Outburst

Remember Family Feud? Come to the library and build a team of friends to compete to see who can name the top answers for various questions. Teens and tweens of all ages are welcome to participate in this fun and LOUD program, which will take place on Monday, February 22 at 3:00 pm. Didn't you always want be loud at the library?!?
