Dr. Herbert Curtis, Jr. from Lincoln Chiropractic will offer a talk on "BALANCING HORMONES NATURALLY" on Tuesday, January 13 from 6:30 pm to 7:30 pm. This program is free and open to the public. Registration is required. Please call 949-3630 ext. 1 to register.

GRANTS

We are pleased to announce that the Greenville Public Library is the recipient of three grants so far this fiscal year.

Champlin Foundations: $18,800 to repair two flat roofs that had been a source of leaks. The Foundations have also provided funding for eight computers to replace older models.

The Rhode Island Foundation manages endowments and forwarded two grant awards: $2,602 from the Thomas K. Winsor fund, established by Kay and Louise Moore, and $5,252 from the Mattie A. Walcott Fund. Both grants will be used for Library materials and programs.

Diane Hoxie is displaying her oil paintings in January.

Diana Brennan with Arts in RI is exhibiting winter theme artwork in the Castle Exhibit case in January.

Do you have a collection you would like to share? Do you have small pieces of artwork you would like to exhibit? Please call Dorothy Swain at 949-3630 ext. 116 to set up a time to exhibit your collection or artwork in the Castle Display case.

Children's Department News

Storyhours

Registration for the winter session of preschool storyhours will be taken from December 29-January 3. Registered participants sign up for the ENTIRE session. The age groups are listed below:

Turtle-Time for ages 1 1/2- 2 1/2 years accompanied by a caregiver, will be held on Mondays at 10:15 or 11:15 am. The program begins January 5.

Please call the Children's Department at 949-3630 ext. 3 to register for the winter series.

Storyhours

Toddler Storytime for ages 2 1/2-3 1/2 years accompanied by a caregiver, will be held Fridays at 10:15 or 11:15 am. The program begins January 9.

Preschool Storytime for ages 3 1/2-5 1/2 years will be held Wednesdays from 10:30-11:15 am and 1:15-2:00 pm. The program begins January 7.

Apple Blossom Garden Club Workshop

The Apple Blossom Garden Club invites children ages 6 to 11 to register for a special workshop for the RI Federation of Garden Clubs' standard flower show to be held at the Library on Wednesday, January 28 at 4:00 pm. The project is as follows: "Around the World in 80 Days... Up, Up, and Away!!" Our young enthusiasts are invited to decorate a hot air balloon using dried and/or treated plant material, beans, pods, etc. Some decorative materials may be used in addition to plant materials. The Garden Club will provide the balloon shape. Balloons will be suspended from a fishing line to show off the decorations on both sides of the balloon. Completed projects will be on display at the RI Convention Center in February and each piece will be judged. Registration begins on January 12. Children may pick up their arrangements at the library once the show is over.

The Apple Blossom Garden Club members encourage future gardeners during a library workshop

Children make banners to celebrate the coming winter.

Fractured Fairy Tales

Join us on Wednesday, January 14 at 4 pm as we write our own fractured fairy tale. Children ages 6-10 will hear a story and make their own fractured fairy tale flip book! Registration for this program begins on Friday, January 2.

Children's Room Bubble Display

During the month of January, twelve-year-old Elaine Reedy will display her Beanie Babies collection in the Children's Room Bubble. Elaine started her collection when she was six-years-old because Beanie Babies are, "cute, small and portable." So be sure to stop by and see Elaine's collection this month!

Bryant University and the Library once again will team up to provide tutoring to elementary age students from January to May. Registration forms are available in the Children's Room and must be completed as soon as possible. Tutoring slots are filled on a first-come, first-served basis. Sessions will begin in January.

Young Adult Department News

Show Your Stuff

Everyone has a talent, and the library is offering those in middle and high school to share that talent with others with our very own talent show. The cabaret will run from 3:00 – 5:00 pm on Monday, January 12 at the library. If you are interested, all you have to do is contact Aaron at the library to register at 949-3630 x103 or gvlyas@aol.com. Don't forget to tell him your talent.

Young Adult Writers Group

Aspiring writers in middle and high school are welcome to join this new group, which will meet monthly to put their stories to paper. Writers of all skill levels are welcome, and our next session will take place on Thursday, January 22 at 4:00 pm.

Celebrate Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Birthday with a Craft

Middle and high school students are invited to come to a program celebrating the heritage of African Americans with a fun craft on Wednesday, January 28 at 3:00 pm. All you need is a little creativity for this fun opportunity to learn about another culture.

Rhode Island Teen Book Award Election

Grown ups got to vote for President in November. Now, you have a chance to vote. Come to the library for a ballot and vote on your favorite read from a list of 20 titles and help select the best young adult book for 2009. For a list of the books visit: http://www.yourlibrary.ws/ya_webpage/ritba/ritbaindex.htm.

Penguins, Penguins Everywhere

It sure feels cold enough that it feels like we are in Antarctica. Come to the library and design your own little penguin family at 3:00 pm on Wednesday, January 14. They should feel right at home with their middle-school-aged creators.

Wii! It's So Much Fun!

It's good exercise, and it really is a great way to compete. Each Tuesday, the Library will be offering teens a chance to play with friends on a Nintendo Wii game from 2:00 – 6:00 pm. You just bring yourself (and maybe a friend) and enjoy the fun. The program is for middle- and high-school-aged young adults.

Scene-It? for Teens

Trivia, puzzles, and video quizzes. Test your knowledge of pop culture with this fun DVD-game on Monday, January 26 at 3:00 pm. If you are in middle or high school, this will be a blast.

Win, Lose or Draw!

Twins and teens are welcome to join in and play the fun party game Pictionary with your friends and other teens on January 15 from 3:00 - 5:00 pm.

Seek and Find Fun

Everyone remembers playing Where's Waldo or I Spy when they were little. Well, here is your chance to do that type of thing as a game and compete with all your friends. The fun kicks off on Friday, January 23 at 3:00 pm. This program is for those between the ages of 11 and 18.
