adult news

Raffle Tickets

The Library will be selling Raffle Tickets for a quilt donated by our Wednesday Night Quilters in memory of fellow quilter Pauline Gill. Tickets will be $5.00 for one or 5 tickets for $20.00. All proceeds will go towards Childrens programs, the museum pass program, and the library book fund.

Booksale

There will be a booksale on Sat. January 14 from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm.

Tax Seminar

There will be a Tax Seminar presented by True Home on Thursday, January 5 from 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm. This program is free and open to the public.

Mystery Book Club

Members of the Mystery Book Club will be meeting on Tuesday, January 3 from 1:30 pm - 2:30 pm to discuss The Narrows by Michael Connelly. New members are always welcome.

Used Ink Jet Cartridges

The Library is always collecting used ink jet cartridges. Please drop off your old cartridges in the blue basket at the front of the library.

children's department news

Let's Make Candles

Many say that candles warm the heart and home. Come and make real candles that can be used with adult supervision. Children ages 6 - 10 may register for this after school program to be held on Wednesday, January 18 at 4:00 pm. Registration begins January 3.

Apple Blossom Garden Club members help children create Thanksgiving centerpieces.

Music Together Demo Class

Join Anne-Marie Forer from the Purple Piano as she presents a Music Together Demo session for families with children ages 4 and under at the Library on Friday, January 6 at 10:30 am. Registration for this fun event is required and is being taken now.

Tutoring

Bryant University and the Library once again will team up to provide tutoring to elementary age students from January to May. Registration forms are available in the Children's Room and must be completed as soon as possible. Tutoring slots are filled on a first-come, first-served basis.

Valentine's Day

Register for February Valentine's Day Programs:

Make a Valentine's Day Card for that special someone!

Join Mrs. Deborah Sutherland as she teaches children ages 6 - 10 how to create their own cards using rubber stamps. Each child will take home two cards they design. The program will take place Wednesday, February 1 at 4:00 pm. Registration is required and will begin January 17.

Apple Blossom Garden Workshop

The Apple Blossom Garden Club invites children ages 5 to 10 to register for a special program at the Library. The children will create a design on a musical note using dried flowers, seeds, and beans. The completed arrangements will be on display at the Standard Flower Show at the RI Convention Center from February 23-26 and each piece will be judged. The program will be held on Wednesday, February 8 at 4:00 pm. Registration begins on January 17. Children may pick up their arrangements at the library after the show.

Garden Club members join children as they display their Thanksgiving creations.

Storyhours

Registration for preschool storyhours will be taken from January 3 - 7. The age groups are listed below:

Turtle-Time for ages 1 1/2- 2 1/2 years accompanied by a caregiver will be held on Mondays from 10:30 - 11:00 am. The program begins January 9.

Toddler Storyhours for ages 2 1/2 - 3 1/2 years accompanied by a caregiver will be held Fridays at 10:15 or 11:15 am. The program begins January 13.

Preschool Storyhours for ages 3 1/2-5 1/2 years will be held Wednesdays from 10:30 - 11:15 and 1:15 - 2:00. The program begins January 11.

Please call the Children's Department at 949-3630 ext. 3 to register.

teen talk

Be a Program Buddy

The Children's Room is looking for a few good teens to help with a candle-making program for children ages 6 – 10 years old on Wednesday, January 18 at 4:00 pm. Helpers would be encouraged to come at 3:30 pm to help with setting up the program. This would be a great way to fill those needed community service hours for school or church! Contact Aaron if you would like to help at gvlyas@aol.com or 949-3630 x103.

Library Jeopardy!

Are you a trivia buff? If so, here is your chance to show it! Come play Jeopardy! at the Library in a program on Thursday, January 26 at 4:00 pm. Registration for this program, which is for ages 11 and up, is required and begins on January 1.

Teen Movie Chat

This month, the Teen Movie Chat group will be discussing Star Wars Episode III: Revenge of the Sith. Of course, there will also be some talk of the other films in the series. Join the group for fun treats and a sharing of ideas on Saturday, January 21 at 2:00 pm. Register at the Reference Desk starting January 1.

The Runescape Squad

Come to the Homework Center on Wednesday, January 11 to play Runescape. Here is your chance to explore the fun on-line world and play as a group. The program will last from 3:30 – 5:30 pm. Visit <http://www.runescape.com> for more information about the game. Register today!

Apples to Apples

Remember the old match game you played as a kid? You probably have gotten older, but you can play something similar now. Teens can stop into the Homework Center and play Apples to Apples, the fun word matching game at 4:00 pm on Monday, January 30. Teens can register for this program today!

Teen Book Chat

The Teen Book Chat group will be discussing Year of the Hangman by Gary Blackwood, on Tuesday, January 31 at 4:00 pm. This program is free and open to those between the ages of 11 and 17. Registration begins on January 1.

Get Risky at the Library

Who wouldn't like to take over the world? Thanks to the popular party game, Risk, you can! And all the fun is in actually taking over. Try out Castle Risk, Lord of the Rings Risk, or even Classic Risk during this free program. The session will take place on Thursday, January 19 from 3:30 – 5:30 pm. Registration for this program starts on January 1.

Snowmen and Snowladies

With all the snow we have had this year, teens may be itching to get away from the cold. The Library is offering a chance for young adults, aged 11 – 17, to make a snowperson decoration to replace the holiday decorations they have just taken down. The important thing is they will get to stay away from the cold, white stuff. The craft program will take place on Wednesday, January 18 at 4:00 pm.

Join Teens Across Rhode Island in Voting

Let your voice be heard! The Library has copies of the official Rhode Island Teen Book Award ballot for young adults to select the 2006 winner. There are more than 20 titles to choose from. If you have read three or more titles on the list, you can vote on which you think was the best. For a list, please visit http://www.yourlibrary.ws/ya\_webpage/ritba/ritba06/ritba06.htm. Those turning in ballots at the Library will be entered into a random drawing for a $10 gift card to an area restaurant. Ballots need to be turned in before February vacation.

Ductigami

Got tape? Who knew that duct tape could be so much fun? Join other teens at the Library and make your own wallet, ID holder, or CD holder out of duct tape. This craft program for ages 11- 17 will take place on Thursday January 12 at 4:00 pm. Registration starts on January 1.

Classics Club

The Classics Club will be meeting on Monday, January 23 at 4:00 pm to discuss Animal Farm by George Orwell. The program, which is for those ages 9 and up, can be registered for after January 1. Feel free to bring an adult reader with you to join in on the discussion!

Teen Advisory Library Council

The TALC committee will be meeting on Monday, January 9 at 4:00 pm. The council is made of area teens interested in helping the library better serve them. They share ideas on what books, DVD, and other materials the library should purchase as well as helping to plan programs the library offers for their age group. New members are always welcome. Teens looking to complete their community service requirements will find that this is a great way to do so!
