This program is free and open to the public.

Children's Department News

Making Ice-cream

Monday, November 19 at 4 p.m. for ages 6-10. Make delicious homemade ice-cream to serve with your favorite pie this Thanksgiving. It's simple. It's fun. It's delicious! We will enjoy some thanksgiving stories as we shake, shake, shake our milk and watch it thicken. Registration starts November 1.

Thanksgiving Centerpiece

Children ages 5-12 are invited to register for this workshop presented by the members of The Apple Blossom Garden Club to be held on Wednesday, November 14 at 4:00 pm. Create a wonderful centerpiece for your holiday table. Sign up beginning November 1.

Children's Art Class

Adele Karbowski, artist and teacher, will be presenting the second class in the series of one hour art classes held monthly for children ages 6-10. Registration is required and must be done in person. A $5.00 fee per class will be required at registration, which is now in progress. November 20 and December 18 at 4:00 pm are the next two sessions.

Displays

Don't miss 12-year-old Luke Thompson's soldier display this month in the Children's Room. Luke is a history buff and enjoys reading about different battles. Then, he likes to reenact the battles with his toy soldiers.

The lobby trees are decorated monthly with crafts made by Girl Scout Troop 544 under the direction of Mrs. Diane Maione and her daughter Tanya.

The Bulletin boards and doorways in the Children's Room display artwork made by the children at the Greenville Nursery School. Visit the library to see how creative these young artists are!

Toddlers dress for a Halloween storytime at the library.

National Children's Book Week

Children ages 5-10 may earn a free book simply by coming in to the Library during Children's Book Week, November 12-18, telling us what their favorite book is, and checking out a book to read. Catch up on those school assignments or just take out a fun book to read during Thanksgiving break. Children must show the librarian on duty in the Children's Room their library card and the book they are checking out to earn their free book. We will post a list of favorite books on our bulletin board!

Tiny tots enjoy a pumpkin storytime during Turtle Time.

Turtle Time attendees enjoy dressing up for Halloween.

Teen Talk

Dia De Los Muertos/Mexican Day of the Dead

Halloween may be over, but that doesn't mean the spookiness is! Come and learn about this interesting Latin American holiday that is held to celebrate and honor those that have gone before and celebrate the continuation of life. We will have traditional foods and crafts to sample as the discussion occurs. The program will take place at 4:00 pm on Friday, November 2.

Homeschoolers Club

Every Wednesday morning at 10:30 am, the library offers an educational and fun program for homeschoolers ages 9 and up. Each workshop, on a different topic, is offered that includes a presentation, discussion, and activities. The schedule of topics for November includes:

- November 7 – Civics (History & Government)
- November 14 Genealogy
- November 21 – Library & Research Skills
- November 28 – Chess

Scene-It? for Young Adults

Young adults between the ages of 11 and 18 can come to the library's Baker After-School Center to enjoy a fun romp through popular culture by playing Scene-It?, a DVD based game that will test their knowledge about what is cool and what is not. The zaniness will start on Wednesday, November 7 at 4:00 pm.

Activism 101

Think activism means living in trees and enduring bark burns? Possibly, but the realm of activism spans many causes and takes several shapes. From raising funds to battle an illness affecting a loved one, to raising awareness about genocide that seems a world away, learn the tools you need to cultivate support for your cause(s) at Activism 101 on Saturday, November 10 at 1:00 pm. All young adults in grades 6 through 12 are welcome! The program will be offered for a second time on Thursday, November 15 at 6:30 pm.

Thanksgiving Scavenger Hunt

How much do you know about the true history of Thanksgiving? How and why did the first Thanksgiving occur? Why do we eat turkey? How and when did football arrive on the scene? Is Thanksgiving a time for celebration for all Americans? Test your Turkey Day knowledge at our Thanksgiving Scavenger Hunt on Saturday, November 17th at 1:00 pm for a chance to win a cornucopia of prizes! Anyone in grades 6 – 12 may participate.

Making Designer Plates

With Thanksgiving quickly approaching, you might be looking for that special thing to make the dinner table particularly festive. The library is having a young adult program that will allow you to decorate plates that you can use to serve your family's culinary delights a few days later. Bring your creativity on Tuesday, November 20 at 4:00 pm and become a fashion plate!

Library BINGO!

How much do you know about the Greenville Public Library and what it has to offer tweens and teens? Well, here is your chance to find out and win fabulous prizes in the process. There will be a fun Bingo tournament for those between the ages of 11 and 18 taking place at the library at 4:00 pm on Thursday, November 15.

Members of the young adult Homeschooler's Club practice their chess acumen.

Finding Your Roots

Thanksgiving is a holiday that really makes us think about family and those close to us, but how much do we really know about our ancestors? Come to this program and you will learn about how you can start seeking out information about them. The investigation kicks off at 4:00 pm on Monday, November 26.
