H APPILY EVER AFTER

Marriages and relationships change for a number of reasons but at the core is usually a communication breakdown. Would it surprise you to know that the the one we loose touch with first is ourselves? This program is designed to help you explore your own beliefs of what a relationship is and the expectations you have of both yourself and the other person within that relationship. Valerie English, the company's founder, is a licensed registered nurse, EFT practitioner, reiki master, and certified hypnotherapist.

Congratulations to Summer Readers!

The Library would like to congratulate all of the children who participated in the "Catch the Reading Bug" Summer Reading Program. Over 150 children from 3 1/2 – 10 registered for the program agreeing to read at least 15 minutes a day. Each week children recorded 100- 200 hours of reading time during the 7 week program! The Library would like to thank the sponsors who made the program possible this year: RI Office of Library and Information Services, Institute of Museum and Library Services, RI McDonald's Restaurants, the Friends of the Greenville Public Library, the Smithfield YMCA, the Pawtucket Red Sox, Citizens Bank, and Coca-Cola.

After-School Center Reopens!

With the start of the new school year, the Library will be reopening the Baker After-School Center on week-days. This space reserved specifically for teens is open from 2:00 – 6:00 pm (5:00 pm on Fridays). Teens have access to 16 computers, a number of tables to use for group projects, party games, and fun music to fill the background. Just stop in and hang out with your friends!

Young Adult Writers Group

Aspiring writers in middle and high school are welcome to join this new group, which will meet monthly to put their stories to paper. Writers of all skill levels are welcome, and our first session will take place on Thursday, September 25 at 4:00 pm.

Scene-It? for Teens

Come and play this fun party game that uses video & sound clips, puzzles, and trivia to test your knowledge of pop culture. Any one ages 11 – 18 is welcome to join the fun at 4:00 pm on Thursday, September 18.

Wii! It's So Much Fun!

It's good exercise, and it really is a great way to compete. Each Tuesday, the Library will be offering teens a chance to play with friends on a Nintendo Wii game from 2:00 – 6:00 pm. You just bring yourself (and maybe a friend) and enjoy the fun. The program is for middle- and high-school-aged young adults.

Teen Advisory Library Council

The library is looking to restart its Teen Advisory Library Council. Come and help us plan programs and choose items to add to the collection for teens. If you want to help, join us on Saturday, September 13 at 11:00 am for some tasty treats and a sharing of ideas. This is a great way to fill any community service hours you might have to complete for school.

Lighten Up! Light Switch Craft

Add a little flare to your room with this fun craft. We will be decorating light switch plates with paint, decoupage, and other fun artistic methods to get just the right look for you. Middle-school- and high-school-students can join the fun at 4:00 pm.

Back 2 School Locker Mirror Fun

The best way to feel comfortable at school is to find a way to make your locker feel like home. Come to the library and decorate a magnetic mirror to hang in it for a whole new perspective on school. This craft, for those ages 11-18, will take place on Wednesday, September 3 at 4:00 pm.

Yak & Snack Book Chat

We are starting another year with our teen book discussion group. To kick things off, we are going to invite you to come to the library and share some thoughts about the great books you read during the summer. We will also plan out what books we will read this year! Join us on Monday, September 15 at 4:00 pm for the fun.

Manga Mania

Whether you are into shjojo or shonen, it is always fun to share your thoughts about this Japanese comic art form. This program is a monthly program that will allow you to get together with others who enjoy reading and drawing manga. We will also be having some sushi, both the real kind and our own homemade candy version. Setsuzoku (Join) us on Kugatsu 29 at 4:00 pm.
