

Young Adult September News

Summer Reading Program ~ 2016

The Baker AfterSchool Center Opens Tuesday, August 30

Every day that Smithfield schools are in session, the center is open. Everyone in grade 6-12 is welcome.

Hours: 2:00-5:30 Monday – Thursday
2:00-5:00 Friday

It is located in the Baker Room, which is on the lower level of the library.

No sign up is needed!

It is a place for young adults to do homework, meet friends, use computers, play games or do a craft. All activities will start at 3:00, Monday-Thursday, and homework time will be from 2:00-3:00. Check out our

Facebook Page

(Greenville Public Library TeenScope) for updates on weekly activities.

Join us for our scheduled days of activities (from 3:00-4:00)

- ✦ Create locker magnets on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 30 & 31

- ✦ Thursday, September 8 is International Literacy Day; come with your favorite book to share, snacks provided

- ✦ Come celebrate International Dot Day on Wednesday, September 14

- ✦ Polymer Pens on Tuesday, September 20

- ✦ Stop by on Monday, September 26 to make a caramel apple

- ✦ Every Friday this school year will be MineCraft Afternoon from 2:00-5:00

We had four Grand Prize Winners this summer. Congratulations to Nicole, Ryan, Anna, and Becca.

Keep up with all of the young adult news on our Facebook page "Greenville Public Library Teenscape"